Independent Auditors' Report

The Board of Directors New York Says Thank You Foundation

We have audited the accompanying statements of New York Says Thank You Foundation (the "Foundation" or "NYSTYF"), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements,

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audits' opinion.

1. Nature of Organization

New York Says Thank You Foundation (the "Foundation" or "NYSTYF") was incorporated in the State of New York as a nonprofit organization in October 2004. The mission of the Foundation is: To build hope and provide healing to people around the world as a way to continually "Pay It Forward" for the humanity, kindness, and volunteer spirit New Yorkers — and all Americans - experienced on 9/12. Started in 2003 at the suggestion of a 5-year-old boy, the Foundation is a growing national and global "Pay It Forward" service movement that is creating transformative solutions based on survivor empowerment in disaster relief, education, and the arts.

NYSTYF's core disaster relief project is the annual 9/11 Anniversary "barn-raising" where survivors of 9/11 and disaster survivors from across the United States are empowered to help rebuild and strengthen communities recovering from their own tragedy through large scale community-wide volunteer projects. The core volunteer group consists of FDNY firefighters (many of them survivors of the World Trade Center attacks), as well as Ground Zero construction workers, 9/11 family members, and volunteers of all ages from the New York City metropolitan area. Each year a growing group of disaster survivors from all the communities around the U.S. assisted on previous "barn-raisings" and volunteered at subsequent rebuilding projects as their way to "Pay It Forward." This group includes California wildfire survivors, Hurricane Katrina survivors from Louisiana and Mississippi, tornado survivors from Illinois, Indiana, Texas, Kansas, Iowa, Arkansas, Georgia, and Missouri, flooding survivors from North Dakota, and Hurricane Sandy survivors from New York City and Long Island. In September 2015, a core group of 6 volunteers was sent to Nepal following the earthquake to rebuild 2 classrooms for a local school. Additionally, other volunteers repaired a home damaged by flooding in Alpharetta, GA of a family whose five year old child was being treated for leukemia.

As part of our nationwide disaster relief efforts, New York Says Thank You Foundation became the custodian for The National 9/11 Flag, a 30-foot American flag destroyed in the aftermath of the collapse of the World Trade Center. Rescued from Ground Zero in late October 2001, the flag was first stitched back together by tornado survivors in Greensburg, Kansas on the 9/11 Anniversary 2008. Beginning in September, 2010 NYSTYF took the flag on a 50-state journey where 30,000 wounded warriors, military veterans, first responders, educators, school children, 9/11 family members, and everyday service heroes in local communities nationwide stitched the flag back to its original 13-stripe format using fabric from retired American flags in all 50 states. The flag has been stitched by soldiers and school children who survived the shooting at Ft. Hood, Texas, by World War II veterans on the deck of the USS Missouri in Pearl Harbor, by the family of Martin Luther King Jr., by 20 Members of Congress at the U.S. Capitol, and by Secretary of Defense Leon Panetta who proclaimed at the Pentagon on September 9, 2011 "The National 9/11 Flag will forever stand as a monument to the strength of the American people." The National 9/11 Flag contains threads from the American flag Abraham Lincoln was laid on when he was shot at Ford's Theater. On June 14, 2012 – Flag Day – threads from the original Star-Spangled Banner flag that flew at Fort McHenry in the War of 1812 and inspired Francis Scott Key to write the National Anthem were stitched into The National 9/11 Flag, thereby completing this amazing historic journey. The goal of The National 9/11 Flag Restoration Tour was to inspire 300 million Americans with the flag's rich visual history in order to deepen our sense of citizenship and national pride and bolster the spirit of volunteerism on the 9/11 Anniversary and year-round. The National 9/11 Flag was transferred to the National September 11 Memorial & Museum at the Museum's official public opening ceremony on May 21, 2014 and was put on display on May 21, 2015 for the first anniversary of the Museum opening. A booklet chronicling the restoration has been created and is being sold in the museum store.

The 9/12 Generation Project is the education and service learning division of New York Says Thank You Foundation. The goal of The 9/12 Generation Project is to inspire and educate 1.5 million middle school and high school students with the positive, timeless, and universal lessons of citizenship that emerged from 9/12 and activate these students in service projects related to disaster relief, community revitalization, and the arts. At the core of The 9/12 Generation Project is the educational version of the full-length documentary film New York Says Thank You which premiered at the 2011 Tribeca Film Festival and was viewed by 6 million households nationwide via television and Internet broadcast on the 10th Anniversary of 9/11. Endorsed by the National School Board Association and National PTA Association as an innovative solution by which to teach young students about 9/11, The 9/12 Generation Project is in nearly 1,000 schools nationwide. In February 2015, management of this program was transferred to the American Public Education Foundation to better position it to expand its success.

The Stars of HOPE® program empowers children to use the healing power of art to transform communities impacted by natural and man-made disasters. Run in partnership with Groesbeck Rebuilds America, the Stars of HOPE therapeutic arts program reaches communities in need, bolstering the mental health of children, families, and entire communities in the wake of tragedy. Since the first Stars of HOPE project in Greensburg, Kansas in 2007, an estimated 30,000 disaster survivors and volunteers have transformed communities impacted by disaster in 72 communities in 12 countries. Stars of HOPE is transforming the way people around the world express their compassion and connectivity in the wake of disaster.

Stars of HOPE Box of HOPE was launched in 2015 to enable anyone to be part of a "pay it forward" service movement to bring hope and healing to people around the world every single day. The Box of HOPE contains 15 wooden stars, paints, brushes, an informational brochure and a custom mailing box so the finished stars can be sent to anyone or anywhere hope is needed. Stars painted with messages of hope through this program have been sent internationally to a refugee camp in Syria, nationally following the shooting in San Bernardino, CA, and locally given to residents of a nursing home.

2. Significant Accounting Principles

Basis of Accounting

The Foundation's financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP"), whereby revenues are recognized when earned and expenses are recorded when incurred.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingencies at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses recognized during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Payroll and payroll taxes recorded in the statements of activities and changes in net assets were allocated to program and supporting services based upon an estimated percentage of the number of hours employees spent on specific programs, fundraising and other supporting services. All other expenses were directly allocated to either program or supporting services.

Basis of Presentation

The Foundation's financial statements conform to U.S. GAAP presentation requirements for Not-For-Profit Organizations. Such guidance requires the Foundation to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets. In addition, information is required to segregate program service expenses from management and general expenses. Accordingly, net assets of the Foundation and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

- Unrestricted net assets: Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions.
- Temporarily restricted net assets: Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met either by actions of the Foundation or through the passage of time. When a restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2015 and 2014

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Foundation considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents. Included in cash and cash equivalents in the accompanying statements of financial position at December 31, 2015 and 2014 is $5,774 and $32,488, of cash temporarily restricted for specific mission-related projects of the Foundation.

Contributions Receivable

Unconditional contributions receivable that are expected to be collected in future periods are recorded at fair value. Contributions receivable are reflected net of an allowance for uncollectible amounts based on management's judgment and analysis of the creditworthiness of the donors, past payment experience, and other relevant factors and have been discounted, when contributions are due in more than one year. The rates used for the 2015 and 2014 pledges were 4.00% and 4.50%.

In accordance with U.S. GAAP, the Foundation does not recognize conditional promises to give as a receivable. The Foundation recognizes a receivable only to the extent the condition has been satisfied. As of December 31, 2015 and 2014, there were no conditional receivables.

Contributions

Contributions, including unconditional promises to give, are recognized when the donor makes a promise to give. Contributions are recorded as temporarily restricted contributions if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities and changes in net assets as a satisfaction of program restrictions. Temporarily restricted contributions which are both received and released within the same year are recorded as an increase in temporarily restricted net assets and as a satisfaction of program restrictions.

Grants

The Foundation recognizes grant revenue awarded by foundations as the qualifying expenses stipulated in the grant agreement have been incurred.

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2015 and 2014

Donated Services and Goods

Donated services are recognized as contributions in accordance with U.S. GAAP, if the services (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are performed by people with those skills, and would otherwise be purchased by the Foundation. As substantial number of volunteers have made significant contributions of their time to programs and supporting services of NYSTYF and other organizations connected to Foundation projects but not affiliated with the Foundation. The value of this contributed time is not reflected in the financial statements since it did not require specialized skills. However, certain other contributed services that required specialized skills, were provided by individuals possessing those skills and otherwise needing to be purchased if not provided by donation, are recognized as revenue and expense. Such amounts, which are included in the accompanying statements of activities, were determined based on their estimated fair market value at the date of donation, totaled $33,887 and $57,568 for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014. These amounts were related to volunteers on the 9/11 Anniversary Project, Hurricane Sandy Relief Project and donated legal services.

Donated in-kind contributions for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 consisted of $8,627 and $31,552 of donated materials and airline vouchers.

Income Taxes

The Foundation is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Foundation has also been classified as an entity that is not a private foundation under Section 509(a)(2) and qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A). Accordingly, no provisions for income taxes have been provided in the Foundation's financial statements.

The Foundation recognizes the effect of income tax positions only when they are more likely than not to be sustained. Management has determined that the Foundation had no uncertain tax positions that would require financial statement recognition or disclosure. The Foundation is no longer subject to income tax examinations by the applicable taxing jurisdictions for periods prior to the year 2012.

2. Significant Accounting Principles (continued)

Risk Concentrations

The following summarizes the Foundation's material risk concentrations:

- Cash: The Foundation maintains its cash balances in bank deposit accounts which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Foundation has not experienced any losses in such accounts and as a result believes it is not exposed to any significant related financial risk.
- Unconditional contributions: The Foundation periodically reviews its unconditional contributions and establishes an allowance for uncollectible amounts to manage its credit risk. Management uses historical analysis combined with specific information on individual amounts outstanding to determine a reasonable allowance. Management believes that the credit risk beyond its established allowance is limited.

Subsequent Events Evaluation by Management

Management has evaluated subsequent events for disclosure and/or recognition in the financial statements through the date that the financial statements were available to be issued, which date is May 3, 2016.

Reclassifications

Certain amounts in the 2014 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2015 presentation format.
